Our Vision

A proud, prosperous, and healthy Australia where Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people thrive

We empower Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander young people to:

- Strengthen cultural pride and identity
- Improve social and emotional well-being
- Improve school attendance, performance and attainment
- Develop specific career pathways and work ready skills
- Build life-skills, personal development and long term resilience

In 2022 & 2023: NASCA had over
95% graduation rate, compared to NSW average of 43%

Who we are

- NASCA is a 100% Indigenous governed and led organisation with 95% of program staff identifying as Indigenous.
- Established in 1995 we have supported over 17,000 young people.
- In 2023, we supported over 1,500 young people.
- We work across New South Wales with 16 Young Women's Academies, five Co-Ed Academies and in nine remote communities across the Northern Territory.

What we do

- We connect our young people to CULTURE, to build a sense of belonging, and increase self-esteem which leads to improved social and emotional well-being.
- We support young people in their EDUCATION, mentoring and helping them to build pathways for future educational and employment opportunities.
- We are by COMMUNITY, for Community. Our staff have the lived experience and shared cultural knowledge to provide the right support to the young people they work with.

NASCA: Culture, Education, Community

Our unique approach means our young people experience better outcomes in:

- Connection to Culture
- Wellbeing
- Education and employment
